

Jack cicero

11/12/2024

OLGC

What Does Thankful Mean to Me?

To me, being thankful means not being greedy and to appreciate the things you have. It also means to not be jealous of others' possessions and to be grateful for all I have because some don't even have as much as I do.

I have so much to be thankful for. I have a mom and dad who love me very much and who do so much for me. They make sure I have all I could ever need and want. I am also very thankful for my brother. He is my built in best friend. I know no matter what he will always be by my side. I am thankful that my family shows interest in the things I like and that they always support me in all my passions.

I am very thankful for my home. It's a place where I feel safe and cozy. I especially love it during Christmas time when it's all decorated and I hear Christmas music all day. I know that some people don't have a home so I know how lucky I am to live in such a nice house.

I am also so fortunate and thankful for the things that some people don't have or have access to like good food and water. I am grateful that my mom makes me the best food everyday. I come home from school and she is always cooking or baking something.

I know I live a life that allows me all the things I need and want but at the end of the day I am most thankful for the love that surrounds me every single day. Some kids don't get to experience the love that I feel from my family every single day. For all of this, I am very thankful!