

What Are You Thankful For?

Being thankful is a feeling of appreciation for people, things and a lot of other stuff that you can have in your life. To be thankful is to be grateful for what you have. Thankfulness isn't just appreciating the things you have. It can also be appreciating the people that are in your life, like family and friends.

1. One thing I'm thankful for is my house. I am thankful for my house because some people do not have a home. I am also thankful for my house because it is big. Some people do not have a big house, some can even have tents! This is all why I am thankful for my house
2. Another thing I am thankful for is my family. I am thankful for my family because they are the ones who I know and care for the most. They are also the people who love me the most, and I love them. I'm also thankful for them because I know that some families break up, and they don't see each other anymore. This is why I'm thankful for my family.
3. Last but not least, I am thankful for my basic needs. I am so thankful for my basic needs because they are the things that are making me live. Not having basic needs met, can make somebody die. Basic needs are things you need in your life such as :
 - Food
 - Water
 - ShelterThese are some very important basic needs.

These are some things I am thankful for in my life. My home, my family, and my basic needs being met are very important to me. I thank God every single day for them.
