

What Am I Thankful For?

By: Chloe Corio

Grade 6, Our Lady of Good Counsel School

There are many things that I can be ever so thankful for, so here is everything. I have amazing friends, an amazing school, and an amazing family. I am very thankful for the veterans and soldiers who protect our home and gave us freedom. They left their own families to protect everyone else's, so I greatly appreciate them. I am happy and thankful that I have a meal on my plate every day that always tastes amazing.

I am proud to have two hard working parents that always have time to spend with me and help me with things. I show many thanks to my entire family, especially my aunt who works but always babysits me. Another thing would be my amazing school with amazing teachers, my amazing friends, and the education some kids can't get. I am glad to know I have an amazing security guard so I know I'm always safe.

My family gives me many things to be thankful for, from taking me shopping, to blessing me with a good education, and loving me in general. I believe I have a very good life and many things to be thankful for over all. I'm grateful for being blessed with numerous talents and the ability to do many after school activities and still get good grades. An add on to that category would be being blessed with the ability to quickly write, speak, and learn about different languages.

Also, I'm grateful for the people who care about me. There are people that I see every day that care so much about me which gives me enough to be thankful for. I am grateful to have smart parents who can help me with homework and know how to lecture me when I do something wrong or I would never learn from my mistakes.

I'm thankful for the amazing God that gave me life, animals, trees, and so on. I'm thankful for the teachers who teach me all I know about God. No matter how odd it sounds, I'm grateful for my pets, two cats and one dog, Daisy, Dylen, and Rupert, because they will always love me unconditionally like my parents. Though I'm not always the most responsible with them, I still love them and am grateful for them.

And last but most certainly not least, I am thankful for the beautiful world that I live in.
