

Thank you for my family and friends who bring me joy everyday

Hope and laughter never fades as long as you have kind things to say

And thank you to my mom my dear old mom for pay for dance for dear old four days every week

No doubts are sprouting not even a little that's my favorite part of this thankful day

Kindness is coming so is love which is the best always on this thankful day

Full house of thankful people oh people oh people

Unlimited food fills my tummy yummy yummy

Love is spouting so are you when you show kindness kindness blooms right next to you

I am thankful for kindness
