

I am thankful for my mom because she cares for me everyday.
I am thankful for my dad because he listens to what I say.
I am thankful for my brother who grew up with me.
I am thankful for my aunt who loves green.
I am thankful for my uncles because they are sweet.
I am thankful for my pets because they mean something to me.
I am thankful for my grandparents when they love me.
I am thankful for my friends because they keep me happy.
I am thankful for tomatoes because they are yummy.
I am thankful for my neighbors when they see me.
I am thankful for my meats because they are really healthy.
I am thankful for my teacher who teaches me.
I am thankful for foods my parents gives me.
I am thankful for my room to let me have privacy.
I am thankful for this poem because it expresses me.
Now you know what keeps me happy.

By: Emma Hwang
Mrs. Almanzar's fourth grade class
Pasadena Elementary School
Plainview, NY

