

I'm So Thankful!

Thanksgiving reminds me of all the people and things I'm thankful for. I appreciate my family, food, and money.

I'm especially thankful for my family because they care for me. My family drives me to places so I could have fun. My family also does things for me that I can't do myself, for example they help me with hard homework. Finally, my family loves me.

I also appreciate food because it has a good taste. Another reason is it gives me energy to run around and play games like soccer, basket ball, or tag. Finally because it stops me from being hungry.

Finally I'm grateful for money because I could buy things with it. Another reason is I could play games with coins like heads or tails. Also you could pay people too do things for you like clean your house or fix a leak or cook your food. Finally, money is valuable.

As I enjoy this holiday season, I realize that I have many reasons to be thankful. Family, food, and money are just a few of the blessings in my life.
