

I'm So Thankful!

Name Rachel Milman

Date 11/28/24

Thanksgiving reminds me of all the people and things I'm thankful for. I appreciate my family, a home, and my health.

I'm especially thankful for my family because they are always there for me and they care about me. My family makes me feel loved. Also, they help me when I'm sad. In addition, my family takes care of me when I'm sick and not feeling well. Also, they celebrate parties and holidays with me. Finally, my family travels to different places with me, which I love to do.

I also appreciate a home because I have a place to sleep, eat, and play in. My home has a table that I can sit down and eat. Also, I have my own bed to sleep on. In addition, there is a bathroom for me to shower and brush my teeth in. Finally, I have a living room that I can play games and watch TV.

Finally, I'm grateful for health because I can do things without feeling sick. When I'm healthy it helps me be able to be together with my family when we do a family dinner. Also, I'm able to play with my friends and if I am not healthy I can't play with them.

As I enjoy this holiday season, I realize that I have many reasons to be thankful. Family, a home, and health are just a few blessings in my life.
