Thanksgiving reminds me of all the people and things I am thankful for. I appreciate family, friends and education.

I am especially thankful for family, because they take care of me. They cheer me up when I am feeling sad, and make me feel happy again. I can always know that my family is there for me. Also my family takes me to places, and pays for things I need. I love my family.

I also appreciate friends, because they are helpful and they cheer me up. I can always count on them. Also they give me really good advice when I need it. Finally, they do things with me like hang out. It makes me really happy to have them as good friends.

Finally, I am grateful for having an education. Education is important to me, because I get to learn new things. It helps me understand things better. Education is good at preparing me for harder grades and subjects. It makes me feel really lucky to have a good school. I am so grateful to have education in my life. As

As I enjoy this holiday season I realize, I have many things to be thankful for. Family, friends and education are just a few blessings in my life.
