

I'm So Thankful!

Thanksgiving reminds me of all the people and things I'm thankful for. I appreciate family, friends, and education.

I am especially thankful for family because they care about me. They also make me feel loved. In addition, I wouldn't be able to finish my homework without them. Finally, they always make breakfast for me so I'm not hungry when I get to school.

I also appreciate my friends because they entertain me. I also think they are funny and make me laugh. In addition, they make me feel comfortable. Finally, they encourage me to do things I'm scared to do.

Finally, I'm grateful for education because school will make me smarter and help me find a good job. In addition, school is also important because I get to see my friends. It also helps me learn things I didn't know before. Another reason school is important is because they keep me fed when it's time to eat lunch. Finally,

school gives me breaks so I can learn
better and get exercise.

As I enjoy this holiday season, I realize that I have many reasons to be thankful.
Family, friends and education are just a few
blessings in my life.
