So grateful

Thanksgiving reminds me of all the people and things I'm thankful for. I appreciate my family, friends, and education.

I'm especially thankful for my family because they were always there for me when I needed them. Also, my family pays for everything I need in life like shelter, food, and everything else I need to survive. Finally, my family makes me feel very loved and special every single day of my whole life.

I also appreciate my friends because they help me with things I don't understand like math, writing, and other subjects. Also, my friends are always kind to me, whether I'm sad, nervous, or confused with anything. Finally, my friends make school more fun if it isn't already.

Finally, I'm grateful for education because it helps me become smarter. Also, education teaches me things I do not understand yet. Finally, education tests my knowledge and sees what I still need to work on.

As I enjoy this holiday season, I realize that I have many reasons to be thankful. Family, friends, and education are just a few of the blessings in my life!
