

What I am Thankful For

By: Maria Shahid

I am thankful to my family, friends, school, and the things that I have. My family is because of the things they do for me. My friends because of their companionship with me. My school is because of educating me so much. I'm thankful because I have a lot of what people don't have.