

My Thanksgiving Poem

On Thanksgiving Day there is much to say I'm thankful for the sun that I feel and see And always for my family who gathers here with me And one thing that I show my gratitude for is food because I always make new recipes with my parents trying something new. And I'm thankful for my friends who will always be my crew. And I'm thankful for God whom I will always trust. And I'm thankful for the best piece of the pie, the pie crust. I love the shelter over me. And all the crunchy leaves I see. And I'm thankful for all my teachers. Who made me an over achiever.
