

What I am Thankful For

I am thankful for my mom and dad
They've given me everything I have
They give me the world
That's more than I can ask
To make them proud I stay on task
They've done their part from the start
They are not tart.... But they are sweet to my heart
Family is important and it's a good thing too
Without my family I wouldn't be writing this poem for you!
