

I'm thankful for both the good and bad days
For the happy and sad memories
For the friends that came and for the friends that left
Im thankful for the people who made me into me.

Im thankful for the laughs and the tears
All the strangers i met that are now so important.
Im thankful for the joy and sadness i've felt these years that have passed.
Im thankful for the people who made me into me.

Im grateful for the house i live in
And the people who live with me
And for all the food i get and the presents for celebrations
For the good and the bad moments in this house.
Im thankful for the people who made me into me.
