

Thankful

Today you ask me what I am thankful for
I say why are you asking me this, for what reason you chose me
Just answer the question he said
Ok! It's going to be a long one so hold up

I am thankful for the sky the blue, blue sky
The wavering ocean swaying into the waves
I am thankful for the grass green, green grass
The smooth hard rocks

I am thankful for the shining sun, shining sun
The light traveling through the sky
I am thankful for the family I have
The loving family I have

I am thankful for the friends I have
The trustworthy friends I have
But, One thing I am thankful for is the most important is
The heaven like life that god has given me
