

I am thankful for having a roof over my head because if you didn't you would get wet from the rain. I am also thankful for my parents because they feed me. I am also thankful for cousins and siblings, and my family. And I am thankful for trees because if you didn't you wouldn't have paper. And I am thankful for a life. These are the things that I am thankful for.