

I am thankful for a roof over my head, food on the table, and a family. Even though my sister and brothers are annoying sometimes, I have someone to play with. Also my home may be old , but it makes me warm, and does the job. Lastly, I may not like some food my Mom makes, but there are people who don't even get food. These are the reasons I am thankful for a family, a home, and food.