

I am thankful for my family. My family makes me happy and they would do anything to keep me happy or safe. They make me laugh and we play around with each other some times my dad and mom and brother and sister and me go and play pillow fight in my mom and dad's room

