Name:

Brainstorm/Plan-Thankful Assignment

Date:

With Thanksgiving approaching next week, the NYS Senate is seeking submissions from students around the theme of gratitude. Entries are due on 11/22. While you do not have to formally submit your work, everyone needs to complete this assignment for class. The final product can be either in the form of an essay OR a poem.

Information from the official criteria:

We're seeking student submissions of essays, poetry, or artwork that capture the essence of thanksgiving and the meaning of gratitude. This initiative is a great opportunity for students to reflect on these themes in a meaningful way, and all participants will receive a certificate signed by Senator Webb in recognition of their contribution

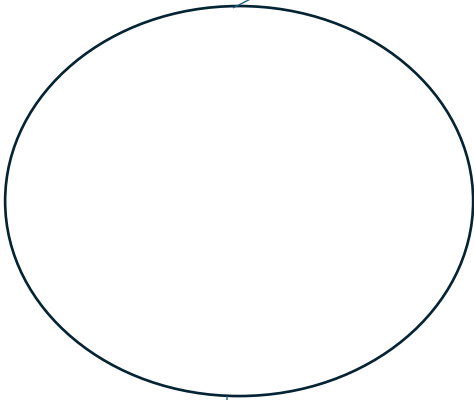

Brainstorm	What are you most grateful/thankful for?
Narrow	Choose 2-3 of the most important things to you that you'll include in your essay/poem
