

Thankful essay - by Celia Capobianco

I am thankful for a lot of things. The word thankful means to be grateful for what you have. I have so much gratitude in my life. I am thankful for my health. I am thankful for my ability to participate in all sports.

I am thankful for my parents who have sacrificed their own money to send me to a great school. I am also thankful that my mom coaches the many sports that I play. I am also thankful that my parents let me play sports and activities that I like. I am very thankful that they love, care, and have fun with me.

I am thankful for my grandparents who take me on nice trips. They also encourage me to do well in school. I am also thankful that they have fun with me. I am happy that they go to games and watch me play. I am also thankful that they have a beach house where we can swim all summer. My other grandparents live in the country where we can see lots of nature. I like to see all the deer there. I also like the honeyballs that my grandma makes for the holidays.

I am thankful for my friends who are there for me. I am also glad that they are nice to me. I am happy that we do many sports together. I am thankful to have friends like them. Me and my friends like to hang out together.

Lastly, I am thankful for music. I love how it makes you feel. I like to sing and dance to the music. It makes me have happiness in my heart. I also enjoy playing the piano and the recorder.
