Our Lady of Good Counsel

Who I am Thankful For

During Thanksgiving, me and my family gather around the table and tell one another what in our lives we are thankful for. I am thankful for everyone in my family because they helped me grow as a person and in my faith. Each person in my family means so much to me in many different ways because they have made me kind and respectful towards others.

I am thankful for my mother because she cares and shows love to me and my family. She works for my family everyday and when she comes home she cooks an amazing meal for all of us to enjoy. When me or my siblings are upset or angry she's always the one to comfort us, calm us down, and tell us that everything is going to be alright. She not only cares for us, but she also does fun activities with us during our free time and comes to everyone's events like our sports games.

I am thankful for my father because he has worked so hard for me and my family so we can live a good life. He goes to work for many hours and no matter how tired he may be, he is always there for us. He spends time with me and my siblings and boosts us up in everything we do and what we may need to work on. He shows us that family and love is everything to a person.

I am thankful for my siblings because they always support me and will defend me. My brother Joseph always includes me with his friends and we are always playing games together. He is my best friend and we always look out for each other. My sister Ava always helps me when I need it and looks out for me. Even though she is in highschool and has lots on her plate, she spends time with me and makes me feel happy. Both of my siblings have helped me and have shown me to be kind to others because they are kind.
