Thankful Essay

To me being thankful means to be grateful for something that you love. This Thanksgiving I am thankful for my friends, my family, and my school. This is what I am thankful for this Thanksgiving. And this is why I am thankful for each of them.

I am thankful for my family because they help me with school as in homework, studying, and projects. They also make me laugh and smile and I have a lot of fun when I'm with them, like when we go places, like going on airplanes or taking road trips together. I think that it is a lot of fun spending time with them anywhere or anytime.

I am thankful for my friends because they make school more fun and they also make me laugh and smile a lot. I have fun when they are around and I like playing games with them hand games or outside games. I also like hanging out with them outside of this school. Like in summer I like playing in the pool and eating ice cream with them at my house.

Lastly, I am thankful for school because it helps me learn more about a lot of things that can help me in life like math can help me with time or money, ELA can help me with grammar and how to spell things. And also school taught me how to read and write and that is very important in life.

I am very thankful for all of them all of them make me laugh and I have fun with each of them I have fun with my friends, family, and school they all help me my school helps me learn my friends help me with homework and I help them and my family helps me with a lot of things like cooking, baking, school things, plus more that is all of the things that I am thankful for.
