

*Some things I'm thankful for,
Not including the feasts on the day of Thanksgiving,
Is the gift to hear,
Which is such a dear,
Hearing my friends laugh and talk itself is a blessing,
And I know time can soon remove this as time is passing,
Im also appreciative of my parents,
My parents do their best to provide for me and sister,
I always this set standard in order to please them,
And although it is sometimes tough to achieve,
I know my parents reaction to it is something I will always be in glee.*
