

THANKSGIVING CONTEST

WHAT ARE YOU GRATEFUL FOR THIS YEAR?

What I am grateful for this year is the ability to be able to do what I dream of doing and be grateful for everything I have in life even the littlest things in life too like getting a 100 on a pop quiz etc. I am so grateful to spend time with my family and friends as we will enjoy and take part in the celebration of thanksgiving and give thanks to what we love and relish the most. I believe that this is one of the greatest blessings and best things that can take place every year on the fourth Thursday of November because everyone is in a holiday spirit to enjoy all the celebrations and history of what has happened on that day. I am so grateful for my family due to the fact that they give all of the at most respect and love for me and love for the people who do the same. I am thankful for the ability to celebrate this holiday with the people I know because I know somewhere out there in the world there is someone who can't enjoy a nice hot meal or a proper shelter so I am grateful for everything I have ever had and I pray and wish those people out there to find a job, a safe shelter, a place to get hot food and get love and care because those people deserve it the most in the world and that is what I am grateful for this year. I am grateful for the capability to sit down at a table and tell my family I love them and have a good meal.
