

- Grateful Hearts, Abundant Blessings -

*The autumn leaves fall, gold
And bright,
A feast awaits in the soft candlelight.*

*The air is filled with a cozy embrace,
As family gathers in a sacred space.*

*I'm thankful for the food
we share,
The laughter, the stories,
the love in the air.
For hands that hold, for hearts that care,
For the moments of joy beyond compare.*

*Grateful for the sun, the stars, the rain,
For lessons learned
through love and pain.
For friends who lift,
for dreams that soar,*

For all life's gifts, and for so much more.

On this Thanksgiving, I pause to see,

The beauty in all that's surrounding me.

For every blessing, both great and small,

I am deeply thankful for them all.
