

I'm So Thankful!

Name Aaron Vaysberg

Date 11/7/24

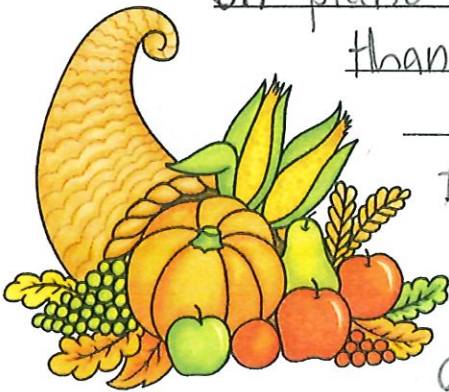

Happy Thanksgiving!

by Aaron Vaysberg

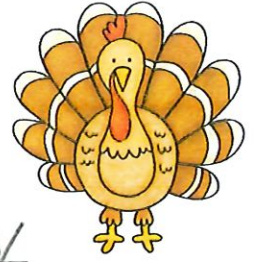

In 1620 the Native Americans and the Settlers celebrated the first harvest with a meal. People consider this the first Thanksgiving. In 1863 the president declared Thanksgiving an official holiday. Today Thanksgiving is celebrated on the 4th Thursday of November. My family doesn't do the same thing every year. But we usually go on vacation or we have a meal with all of our family. This year I am having a feast at my house. My mom is making turkey, salad, roasted potatoes and roast beef. I am thankful for family, friends, and school.

I am thankful for family. My mom is always taking care of me when I'm sick. My dad always plays with me, he always goes to my baseball games and cheers me on. My sister Bella always helps me with my home work when I need it. My sister Leah always lets me listen to music with her on plane or in a car ride. That's why I'm thankful for my family.

I am thankful for my friends. My best friend Jacob is always there for me. My friends Nate and Jake always make me feel better.

when I don't feel good. My friend Benji because he always makes me laugh even if I don't want to. My friend Joey always tells me what happens in the Yankee game. My friend Bryan always encourages me and makes me better. That's why I am thankful for my friends.

I am thankful for school. The best part about school is I get to see my friends every day. I am thankful for school because we get to play recess. School is a lot of fun because we get to play soccer and gaga. I appreciate school because it prepares me for real life. I am grateful for school because I like to learn. I am thankful for school because I like to play sports in gym. That's I'm thankful for school.

It was over 400 years ago when the Settlers and Native Americans celebrated the first harvest. People consider this the first Thanksgiving. Thanksgiving is on the last Thursday of November. This year

It is on November 28th, This Year

I am spending time with family,

After we eat we play games, Family friends, and school are just some of the blessings in my life.

