

I'm So Thankful!

Name Abby Dwyer

Date 11/6/84

My Thankful Essay

by Abby Davulov

In 1620 the Wampanoag and the Pilgrims celebrated their first harvest with a big feast. Some people consider this the first Thanksgiving. In my family we eat turkey, mashed potatoes, beans, rice and much more. Also in my family we go to one of my aunts or uncles house. My mom's side never has the beams with I'm very grateful for. However, we don't always go to family, sometimes we just invite them over or just have it ourselves.

I am pleased to have family, school and nature. I'm so grateful for my family. My mom always helps me. She makes me feel better when I'm sick. She also helps me with projects and homework. She always cares for me and never makes me feel bad about anything. My dad always listens when I talk and never raises his voice. He also buys me healthy food and helps me learn new things. My dog always helps cheer me up when I'm sad. He never lets me down. He respects me so much which I'm very thankful for.

I'm a

I'm appreciative of my school. My friends always care for me and help me when I need it. They never let me down and are always supportive. My teachers help me learn, and make sure I understand all the material. They also help me if I have questions. My classes help me learn and give me knowledge. I learn new facts and get better at what I'm bad at. This is why I appreciate my school. I

I am very thankful for nature. I am pleased to have plants to give me air and are beautiful. Every season has its own special beautiful plants and trees. I am glad to have vegetables and fruits because, they give me nutrients and taste good. Vegetables make me healthy and strong. Fruits are delicious and nutritious at the same time.

time. I am delighted to have birds, that sing in the morning and are very beautiful, some give us eggs too. This is why I'm thankful for nature.