Sarah's LOVELY Thankful Essay

By: Sarah Sherpa

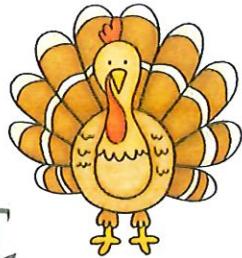

IN 1620 the Wampanoags and the Pilgrims celebrated the first harvest with a feast. Some consider this the first Thanksgiving. In 1863 Abraham Lincoln made Thanksgiving an official holiday. For my family traditions we invite my aunt and my nanny. We usually have turkey and mashed potatoes. I am thankful for my family, friends, and natural resources.

I am so thankful for my family. I am thankful for my mom because she cooks me delicious food. I appreciate my dad because he always takes me places and loves me for who I am. I am grateful for my grandma because whenever I am feeling upset about something she makes me feel better. I am appreciative of my dog Shawflake because whenever I come home he jumps on me and kisses me. I am thankful for my little cousin Sahaya because she always plays with me.

I am super thankful for my friends. I am thankful for Rebecca because whenever I have to get something off my chest I can tell her. I am thankful for Juliana because she shares her stuff with me.

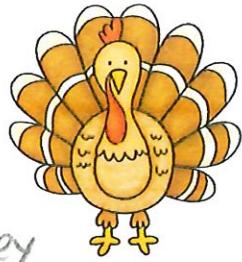

I appreciate Katie because she always makes me laugh. I am grateful for Keren because she is very generous with me. I am thankful for Leila because she is brave and stands up for other people. I am grateful for Layla because she always compliments me. I am thankful for Shayna because she always helps me. I am grateful for Mazal because she hangs out with me.

I am thankful for natural resources. I am grateful for plants because they clean the air. I am grateful for air because I need it to live. I appreciate fruits because they make me healthy and they are delicious. I am thankful for sunlight because it makes me happy and I could see stuff better. I am thankful for animals because they are cute and fluffy and some even make food.

Over 400 years ago the Wampanoags and the Pilgrims celebrated the first Thanksgiving. A long time ago Abraham Lincoln said that Thanksgiving was a national holiday. For my family traditions we ask my aunt and my babysitter to come over.

Almost every year we have turkey and mashed potatoes. I am grateful for my family friends, and natural resources.
