

I wanna make the poem about giving thanks to my mother:

Hello mom, thanks for comforting me whenever I'm sad, mad and more. I really appreciate it and one day I'll repay you one day in the future, i promise i'll repay you for all of the nice things you have done for me. Feeding me buying stuff for me having a roof over my head, I really want to thank you for all of the amazing things you've done, thank you mom you're the best.

From justin.