

What I'm Thankful For

I am thankful for my family. I am thankful for my family for three reasons. One of them is that they are kind. They help me when I am struggling with something like homework and try to get me through it as best as possible. Another one is that my family is caring AND affectionate! They try their best to cheer me up when I'm down, and they support me with anything. One time, I was feeling down about something, and they managed to cheer me up by buying me McDonald's. Finally, a third reason that I am thankful for my family is because they make delicious food (especially on Thanksgiving and Christmas) that I really like and eat. They would normally make (on Thanksgiving) turkey, banana bread, corn, and mashed potatoes. In all, I am really grateful for my family because they are kind, caring, affectionate, and they make really good Thanksgiving food. I wouldn't trade them for the world.
