

What I'm Thankful For
By Aria Haedicke

I am thankful for my boo (a.k.a. my best friend). I can rant to her about anything, and she'll always take my side and understand. She always has my back and will deal with anyone that was being mean. I can tell her anything that I can't trust anyone else with. With all those reasons I will always be grateful and thankful for my boo.
