

What I Am Thankful For
By Dexter Seamon

I am thankful for life.

I am thankful for life because it brings us joy and happiness but sometimes despair and sadness.

It really is a wonderfully mysterious thing that we should love and respect.

We should stay close to the ones who love us and the ones we love.

We should be safe but adventurous and live our lives like we mean it.

We should have someone to spend it with, such as a brother or sister, maybe a parent or grandparent.

We should not be lonely, and we should not be unhappy.

We should be loved and together we are all important.

We should have a good life because we are loved and that is what matters.

We should be respected and taken for who we are, not what we are or what we look like when we live.

No, we are all humans in life and that is what matters.

That is why I am thankful for life.
