

Myself By Aisha shahzad 6th grade

I am thankful for

.....My mom who taught me how to succeed

.....My dad who laughs and play with me

.....My Friends who can cheer me up on a rainy day

.....My teachers who get so proud so easily

.....My religion cause it means i believe

.....My tiny apartment cause it means i have a home to live in

.....My Family who I 'll always have

.....My brothers who might be hurtful but heartfull

.....But most of all myself who taught who herself how to walk
