Thankful for these things

*I am mostly thankful for life, it helps me grow strong
With each gentle breeze and each birds sweet song*

*Golden grains and veggies green,
Each bite more joyful then i've seen*

*In the morning light, as the sun starts to climb,
I pause for a moment, and I'm thankful for time*

*Through laughter and tears, through joy and strife,
I'm thankful for family, my heart's own life*

*In the quiet of night, when the world fades away,
I'm thankful for sleep at the end of the day*
