

I'm Thankful

By Kaylee Flores 6th grade

I'm thankful for failing a test ... it means I have things to work on

I'm thankful for passing a test ... it means I have improved

I'm thankful for talking back to my parents ... it means I have a voice

I'm thankful for getting yelled at by my parents .. it means they heard my voice

I'm thankful for not getting what I want ... it means my parents know what's right

I'm thankful for getting what I want ... it means my parents will give in once in a while

I'm thankful for my sister ruining my hair ... she is little and doesn't understand

I'm thankful for my sister not ruining my hair ... it means she respects me

I'm thankful for when life isn't the best ... it's a normal thing for people to go through

I'm thankful for when life is amazing ... it means I'm doing okay