

Realization

A free verse poem by Oumaima Jamil

6th grade

I sat down at the dinner table
I pondered in my mind,
I remembered about all the times my family had helped me whenever times got tough,
For example when my family encouraged me to live out my dreams,
I remembered my friends and how amazing they are,
For example, Yaseniya she is silly and a great leader,
And Niso is as smart as Einstein,
Ruqiya she is even sillier and a loyal friend,
Then Safina she is very kind and demure,
Then Robiya, she is a overprotective and honest friend,
After that Christina, she is a very mature and reasonable friend,
Then Farangiz she is a caring and relatable friend,
My friends make me who I am as a person,
I love my cats,
Candy is a beautiful and cute cat,
Stripes is a affectionate and silly cat,
My cats both give me comfort and relaxation,
I am grateful for technology,
Without it I wouldn't have the knowledge i have today, and my personality,
I am grateful for everything and how it has made me who I am today,
I shot back to reality and looked around at my family and friends,
I realized how lucky I am for them to be in my life.
