

Im thankful for my mom im thankful for my dad im thankful for my sister and my pets also.Im thankful for my cousins my aunts and uncles to my grandmas my grandpas and my friends too and i know you have hard times or days sometimes so it's okay to get mad about some stuff but you gotta be good even on thanksgiving day. I'm thankful for the food we got today. The food in the olden days was not always slay but we gotta get through it because we got some good food now. Sometimes we think about all the bad stuff that has happened. It's hard to get off your mind. Sometimes even if a family emergency happens and someone passes away you know it's okay because if you think about them that much that means you cared about them alot. Some people love thanksgiving to because you get to spend time with all of your family but some don't because ether someone could not make it or that someone does not like another person so they did not go or there or fighting at the thanksgiving dinner or lastly there could have been someone you don't like there. I like Thanksgiving. It's one of my favorites because I get to spend time with my family.Second we get to eat a really good Thanksgiving dinner. Thanksgiving dinner is amazing. Lastly we get to talk. Sometimes we celebrate my cousin's birthday on that day too. That is why I love Thanksgiving. Do you guys love Thanksgiving, yes or no and why? I'm thankful for Thanksgiving because if we never had Thanksgiving I would never get to see my family unless it was christmas, halloween, or easter, or it could be one of my cousin aunts uncles grandpas or grandmas birthday or my mom dad or sisters birthday. I can't wait for Thanksgiving because I get to see my friends and family but not all the time do my friends join our Thanksgiving or Thanksgiving dinner. People like me love Thanksgiving because you get to spend time with your family and friends, well sometimes friends. Also I get an early Christmas gift sometimes too but my grandma is usually the one to give us one early christmas gift because she spoils us for christmas i don't know why though. I also love Thanksgiving because it is in the fall and I like fall. It's okay. I mean it's not the best but it is good only because I like Thanksgiving. AND I LOVE THE THANKSGIVING PARADE IT IS AMAZING LIKE WHO DOES NOT LOVE A PARADE IN THE MORNING OF THANKSGIVING!!!!!!!!!!!! I also love Thanksgiving because we play a movie and some quiet music while we eat and watch the parade in the morning in my living room while eating breakfast. That is why I love Thanksgiving.
