

Quality's that I am thankful for

I am smart. I am thankful that I am smart because it helps me with problem solving and getting through school it also helps me understand different situations

I am thoughtful. I am thankful that I am thoughtful because it helps me get gifts and other things for family and friends it also helps me do special things for people like painting party's

I am helpful. I am thankful that I am helpful because I can help lots of people do things like move furniture and help them do homework, paperwork, and other forms of work.

I am kind. I am thankful that I am kind because I love helping people, I give things out like pens and folders.

