Thankfulness

There are many qualities that people have that I'm thankful for , one quality I have is being honest , being honest is my quality because I like to show honesty and not lie to others. The reason I like being honest is because my mom always taught me that if I am not honest the lies I tell will always return to me. Sometimes I don't like to be honest but I always remember to stay loyal . Another reason why honesty is my quality is because i also need to stay loyal and honest to my friends because if I am not they might just not trust me and not want to be friends with me.

You are so...
Honest,
Humble, and Hardworking.
