

Thanksgiving Essay Poetry and Song
By Lola Rodriguez, PS 185, 5th grade

I am thankful for a lot of my traits, here are only a little bit of them...

Haiku poem about being helpful

Can I help, can I
I can do it too come on
Won't you let me help

Haiku poem about being funny

I can make people
Laugh, I can make people snort
I make myself laugh

Rhyming song about being curious

What's this what's this, it's someone at the door, what's this, they're doing something more, what's this, they're opening the door to let somebody in to eat some pizza... WHAT'S THIS?!

Those are some traits I'm thankful for, I have a lot more though!!
