I'm Thankful For...

By Elliot Suler

Soon it will be Thanksgiving on November 23rd, I'm extremely excited because I get a big dinner with all my relatives. I can also share all the cool things I learned about Thanksgiving, like how the first feast was 3 days long and was originally a harvest festival. This Thanksgiving I am thankful for my relatives, entertainment and money, food, water and clothes.

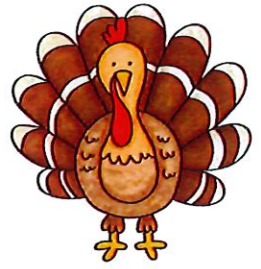

This year I'm thankful for all my relatives like my mom, dad, siblings and more. I love my dad because he takes me to my Lacrosse practices and gets me Starbucks afterwards. I appreciate my mom because she always supports my choices and always knows what is best for me. My dog Charlie is amazing because she always lets me cuddle with her when I want to. I look up to my brother because he is very smart and strong. I also literally look up to him because he is 6ft 1in. I adore my sister because she gives me great advice for everything. My grandma is great because she always gives me what I want or need.

In addition to my relatives I am also thankful for all my entertainment, I'm grateful for my I-pad because without it I would not be able to play video games or check up on my friends from Manhattan. I'm also thankful for my computer because with it I can watch YouTube and do schoolwork. I'm grateful for my Alexa because it could get extremely boring to read without music or annoying to have to get out of bed to check the time. I'm thankful for my Nintendo Switch because I love playing Fortnite with my brother and Super Mario with my friends. I'm also thankful for the many books I own because not only do they expand my vocabulary but they also entertain me whenever I get bored.

This Thanksgiving I am thankful that I have money, food, water and clothes. I'm grateful that I have food and water because without them I would starve and dehydrate to death. I'm lucky enough to have money because without it I would be homeless and starve. I'm thankful for my Clothes because without them I would get cold.

This year I am especially thankful for my relatives, entertainment, water, food, money and clothes. I am extremely glad that Thanksgiving became a real holiday in the 1800s
thanks to Abraham Lincoln.
