Blessings I am thankful for.
By Pailey Arama

Thanksgiving is a holiday that we appreciate what we have. After the Pilgrims were sick their crops started growing and they had a big feast to celebrate. Thanksgiving reminds me of all the people and things that I am thankful for. I appreciate my family and Jewish identity.

I am thankful for my amazing family. I am thankful for my dad because he makes me feel loved. For Shabbas he buys me flowers to make me happy. My mom is very loving because she takes me shopping and buys me clothes. I have three brothers that are very loving.

I have a lot to appreciate about my family.

I also appreciate being Jewish. I feel proud because we have one God. I really like doing good deeds because it makes me connected to God.

My favorite Jewish holiday is Chanukah because I love getting presents, eating donuts and getting chocolate coins. I am proud that I was born Jewish.

As I enjoy this holiday season I realize that I have many reasons to be thankful for Hashem and family are just a few of the blessings in my life!
