

My brain acquires information
In school its education
I'm proud of myself for not giving up

There's always someone who'll act like a snub
I tell myself to not listen
They are not in that position

From dancing
To singing
And only enhancing
One day
I'll leave everyone glancing

I'm pretty and I'm bold
You'll never see me cold
In everything I do
Passion takes over me
And leaves me in glee

God has made this possible
So now it's my turn to be responsible
I'm proud to be a child of him
