

*Have compassion for my friends
Whenever they are feeling down
I try my best to undo their frown
Always forgive
Always let things pass by
I will always apologize
Wipe the tears from their eyes
I am affectionate
To anyone who is there
Always show my love and care
Through mind and motion
I am a girl with devotion
Warm hearted is what I am
I will always be a helping hand
My heart is golden like the sand
Always will be between you and me
Never let it set free
Lock the secrets with a key
I guarantee you can trust me
I am loyal
As possible as a human could be
My head is filled with hopes and dreams
Always optimistic
No matter how bad the situation seems
God gifted me with so many qualities
Every single one of them
Will always define me*
