

As we gather around this time of year,
Let's focus on what we hold dear.
Our loved ones, health, and cherished home,
The things we treasure and call our own.

I'm thankful for my setbacks and mistakes,
For they have taught me valuable lessons to take.
I'm grateful for all my senses so fine,
Without them, I couldn't enjoy this world of mine.

I'm thankful for my body so beautiful,
That God created with such care and skill.
My soft skin, hair, eyes, and nationality,
Are all unique parts of my identity.

While some may be grateful for simple things,
I'm appreciative of everything life brings.
I'm grateful for my curiosity and thirst for knowledge,
That leads me to new things and broadens my perspective.
The things I'm thankful for cannot be replaced,
At any cost or price, they are priceless.

Among my blessings, I know is true,
Every day adds something special and new.
So, let's cherish and be grateful for all we have,
And show kindness and love to everyone around.