

“Pinky promises and trust”

I pinky promise
And this is probably the part where your confused,
Why do I pinky promise you? Instead of just saying I promise
Like I should say at the age we are, But pinky promises are special to me
There is something so innocent that you would have to be a monster to break them
They show the trust I want you to have in me, and the empathy you see in me
When I say, I pinky promise
To me when those words come out of my mouth,
I’m telling you my promise is forever.

– McKenna Lawson