

Thankful poems

By Emily Burford

I'm thankful for...

I'm thankful for my education

I'm thankful for a roof over my head

I'm thankful for food on my plate

I'm thankful for having an AMAZING family

I'm thankful for so many things in my life that I have and some don't

Thankful

Thankful a word many know

A word that makes us realize what we have and everything we're thankful for

A word that means grateful

A strong powerful word that some people don't even know

Some are too ungrateful to know

Being thankful is what Thanksgiving is all about

It's about giving thanks and being grateful for everything that we have

It's about a time of giving and being surrounded by friends, family and people we care about

Thankful, this is what it's all about

Thankful is being...

Grateful

Pleased

Appreciative

Filled with gratitude

And happy

I complain about so many things but I realize I'm lucky to be me

I complain about homework when some people don't have a school or aren't allowed to go to school

I complain about cleaning my room when some people don't even have an apartment

I complain about not having the latest iPhone that some people couldn't afford to have even if they worked for a whole month

I complain about these things that I want or don't want to do but I realize so many people in the world want to have what I have like an education, a roof over my head, and food on my plate but don't and next time you get mad at your mom for not buying you a new pair of shoes think of the children that aren't as fortunate as you
