

I am thankful for peace in America because other countries don't have peace. I am also thankful for my home because it protects me from rain and snow. I am also thankful for my family. They come with me down stairs to protect me from the ghost.

Dhanesh