

What I am thankful for

by Riya Raina

I am thankful for the things I have and do every single day

I am thankful for waking up to the sun's bright ray

I am thankful for a bird tweeting a song, making me feel like singing along

I am thankful for peaceful nights when I can have my favorite dream

I am thankful for my friends, who are always on my team

I am thankful for my family who always show me love

I am thankful for God who shows me skies up above

I am thankful for the good times I have and the people who care

I am thankful for the trees that clean our precious air

I am thankful for Thanksgiving and this poem I write today

I am thankful for people who read this — Hurrah!
