

Jack Delguidice

10/13/16

Thanksgiving is a holiday to spend with family and friends and to talk about things you are thankful for. I am thankful for so many things. I am thankful for my family, my friends, and my education.

First, I am thankful for my family. I am thankful for them because they support me through everything I do. For example, my brother and my dad go to every single one of my sporting events I have. Also, my cousins are the funniest people in the world, and my Aunts and Uncles are the most caring people in the world. These are only some of the reasons why I am thankful for my family.

Next, I am thankful for my friends. I am thankful for my friends because whenever I am feeling depressed they are always there to lift me up. They also make me laugh. Whenever I do something good in sports they also congratulate me. That is why I am thankful for my friends.

Lastly, I am thankful for my education. I am thankful for my education because it will help me be more prepared for my future. For example, my teachers help me prepare me for the next grade. They take the time everyday to teach my classmates and myself. I am truly thankful for that. Without my education, I wouldn't be where I am today.

Those things are just of the few important things I am thankful for. I am thankful for many more things. I will never take these wonderful things I have for granted.